IMPORTANT NOTE: This information is probably not for you unless you take full responsibility for your life and creations.

LINDA AND AUDIENCE: "Happy birthday to you, happy birthday to you, happy birthday Adamus, happy birthday to you!" (audience cheers and applause, as Linda rolls in a cake and balloons)

ADAMUS: (chuckling)
Ah! I Am that I Am, a bit overwhelmed (some chuckles as Linda puts a pendant around his neck) on this beautiful day. A bit overwhelmed. Thank you. Ah! (She sets up a crystal glass and decanter) Oh, ah! Water. Water?

LINDA: Yes, sir. Pérignon.

ADAMUS: And poor Cauldre who is getting all ready to let me jump out and then this? Ah! I have to say, well, I have to say I love each and every one of you (more chuckles). Truly do.

You know, I was at the Ascended Masters Club last night and we were talking, and they said, “Adamus, are you really going to do this Emergence thing tomorrow? Are you really ready for it? Is Shaumbra ready for it?”

And I had a good laugh. I had such a good laugh, and the answer is “Absolutely.” I guess the real answer is, “Why wait any longer? Why wait any longer?” And then knowing I was going to come here today to be with you, knowing what we’re actually doing. We’re going through. We’re going through. Going the lifetimes after lifetimes after lifetimes and now we’re going through, and to be greeted with this? It’s ...

LINDA: Make a wish!

ADAMUS: ... enough to give (some chuckles) an Ascended Master some tears, a lot of tears, and I can’t wait to go back to the Ascended Masters Club tonight – if I could get photos really quickly (to Crash) – so I could bring it back to them and say, “Look! Look what Shaumbra did. Look at the beauty of this.” And, yes, it was my birthday yesterday, and Leo, absolutely. Any other Leos out there? You know what it’s like. You know what it’s like (more chuckles and someone says “Blow your candle out”).

I have to make ... (someone shouts “Make a wish”) I have to make a wish.

LINDA: Hurry up before that last one goes out.

ADAMUS: I have to make a wish and what would I wish for? Of all the things in the world, all the things in the cosmos.

JOANNE: Well, Edith has changed her seat (laughter).

ADAMUS: Yeah, that was ... my first wish was Edith changing her seat. She moved all the way back one row (more chuckles). So I’m not going to ... (the last candle goes out)... oh, we’ll relight. We’ll relight.

SHAUMBRA 1 (woman) He doesn’t have to blow it out now.

ADAMUS: Yeah. All the hot air that I’m putting out blew it out (some chuckles). What would I wish for, since Edith moved her chair? What would I wish for when one is already an Ascended Master? What would I wish for? There’s very, very little that I want, nothing that I need, nothing that I really haven’t already experienced. You know, it’s kind of like you, if you think about it. Nothing you really want, nothing you really need, nothing that you haven’t experienced. What would you wish for?

Ah! So, I’m going to pretend they’re all lit, because you can do that (someone says “Here she comes,” as Linda brings puts more candles on the cake). Oh, Linda to save the day. But my wish stays the same, and I’ll share it with you after I blow out the candle that's already blown out. You know, it's kind of like getting there before you actually there. It's already done, but you go back and re-experience what it's like to blow out the candle, even though the candle's already out and the wish is already done. But ... (Bonnie brings up a lighter to Linda) Ah, that's a serious ... looks like a gun. I thought she was going to shoot somebody (laughter).

LINDA: Don't tempt me!

ADAMUS: I'm not used to all these new ... okay. Are you going to light them all?

LINDA: Sure.

ADAMUS: Because, well, there should be about 300,000 candles on there (more chuckles). Okay, what do I wish for?

LINDA: Can you see it says, "Happy Birthday, Adamus"?

ADAMUS: I see it. Yes.

LINDA: Do you want more candles?

ADAMUS: No, no, that's fine. Let's just do this. You know, we could sit and talk about it forever, kind of like your enlightenment, or we can just (he blows them out) do it (cheers and applause).

I wished for many more happy years with you, with all of you. That's what I wished for, because I couldn't think of anything else that I wanted or want so much as to share this with you, share this whole embodied enlightenment.

This Is It

You know, I was at the Ascended Masters Club, like I was saying, and I realized that this is it. We're here. They were questioning me and kind of teasing me and saying, "Are you really there or are you just trying to one-up us?" You know, there were some other Ascended Masters that kind of channel and teach through other humans, but they've been kind of jealous, you know, and they think a lot of this has just been talk. Now, I report back to them and I show them some of the transformations that you're going through, but I think they think that I'm just trying to beat them to the Lion's Gate. And it's like, no, this is real, otherwise I wouldn't be doing it. Otherwise, I wouldn't have the message that I have for you today.

It's very real. We are here. Why wait any longer? There's really not a lot of other teachings related to coming into your Realization. There's really none. Where we go from here is to talk about living on Earth as an enlightened realized being. That's where we focus. There's not a lot more that we can talk about. We're here. This is it.

A couple of things to remember, and Tobias asked me to bring these out to you. He said as we go through now, I'm talking about going through – you know, all these lifetimes and then you just go right through them. You don't run from them, you just immerse and then emerge. So, as we go into it now, he wanted me to remind you two important things.

First Reminder from Tobias

First of all, you're not crazy. How many times have you thought you were crazy? How many times have you woken up in the middle of the night and said, "What the hell am I doing?" How many times have you questioned yourself so deeply about who you are and this journey, and in doing so, oftentimes even wanted to go back; maybe you should just be a regular human. But you can't. You cannot. You've tried, you can't.

You're not crazy. There are some who may call you crazy. Clinically speaking, I guess you are (laughter). Clinically speaking... yeah, it's very true. This is a nice elegant glass. Thank you (he takes a sip). Mm, it actually tastes good.

Clinically speaking, I guess you would be – delusional, bipolar, whatever they call it these days, psychotic, just whack-job (more chuckles) – because they don't understand. But as we've always talked to you about, no matter how much they criticize or confront you, they actually want you to be for real. They really do. They want to have the hope that there is more to just living – especially the one-timers – more than just this short lifetime on the planet. They want to believe that there is magic, that there's more.

And then the born-again, the ones who believe in reincarnation, you know, born again? Yeah. You know, they want to believe it too, but oftentimes they're so stuck in their ways, their dogmas, their spiritual rituals that – and they actually, you may have felt it, they look down their noses at you sometimes, because you don't sit in meditation for eight hours a day and you're not necessarily a vegetarian or vegan and you don't have altars at your house – most of you; some of you I know you still do – and you don't go through rituals. It's all about you, so they sometimes think, "Well, that's kind of a crazy group there. It's kind of really a bunch of bohemians doing anything they want. Spirituality, you know, it's got to be strict and it's got to be disciplined and you've got to follow the rules. And here's this group just doing whatever the hell they want. They drink, they smoke, they cuss." (audience laughter and cheers)

Even on the other realms, not the Ascended Masters Club, but some of the other realms you'd call higher consciousness, even they're scratching their heads saying, "You can't get to heaven that way." You can't get to heaven in Daemien's car, because the damn old thing won't go that far! (Adamus chuckles) They're wondering about this strange group, and we've kind of laid low. We've done our work, you've done your work, and it's been about releasing; when you come to the core of it, about releasing and Allowing. Not replacing one ritual, one mind trap for another, but just letting it all go. And in letting it go, ultimately about letting it go to wisdom.

You wonder, when you release, where it goes. When you release the wounds, when you release the layers and layers of structures and patterns, sitting in the same chair, you wonder where it goes. It goes to wisdom. And when you allow, you allow that wisdom to come right here. Right here. No, you're not crazy.

Of course, as you realize, there probably hasn't been – what they call – a famous being, a pioneer, whether it's in science, technology, philosophy or anything like that; there hasn't been a single pioneer that I know of that wasn't considered to be somewhat of a lunatic. I guess you have to be to take a different path. You have to get in touch with that inner knowingness. You have to do it different. You're not going to get to this point by staying in the churches or sweat lodges or ashrams or any of that. You get to this point by releasing to wisdom, releasing for wisdom, and then allowing the wisdom back into your life. That's it. You're not crazy.

That was probably the thing Tobias worked the closest with all of you on: You're not crazy. And there was that feeling back then, all the energies were so chaotic, "What's wrong with me?" was the constant question. "What do I need to fix?" Nothing. Just let it go. Nothing.

Second Reminder from Tobias

And then the other thing he wanted me to pass on. You're not alone. You know, remember back when – for some of you it hasn't been that long ago, for some of you many years ago, but back when – the feeling of that deep loneliness. You could be with a group of people, you could be socializing, you could be at the office, with family, but still feeling so dreadfully alone. How terrible was that?

It was all part of a way also to get you back to you, get you back to yourself, because there probably wasn't anything else back then. Get you back within, rather than looking at everything, rather than needing mirrors to see yourself.

You no longer need a mirror to see yourself. That is huge.

Just about as long as you've had lifetimes on Earth, you've always used people on the outside to see yourself. "Who am I?" through other people. How do they see you? Then that's kind of how you saw yourself. Whether it was a teacher or friends or family members or enemies or anything, there was always that mirror. There was always that mirror because of other people, because you didn't want to see yourself in your own mirror. But now you can.

You didn't want to see yourself in that mirror, because maybe it was ugly. Maybe it was you'd done bad things. Maybe it wasn't the reflection of what you really wanted to be. Maybe you were so trampled by others, trampled then by yourself, that you couldn't hold that mirror of you to you. You couldn't possibly look at it, so you used others as your mirror. What they saw in you, you saw in yourself.

It's interesting. It's an interesting way of perceiving reality. But ultimately you take that mirror and you see yourself. I mean that metaphorically, but also real. Now you can look in the mirror.

When you look in the mirror that's not just a projection of other people, what you see in there is the God within, is the I Am that I Am, is the wisdom and the beauty. Try it here in these next few days. Try it before we meet again for our next session like this. Look in the mirror. You know how hard it is to do sometimes. Matter of fact, sometimes some of you will actually really avoid looking in the mirror. But now look in it. You're going to see something totally different. You don't need others to be your mirror. That's one of the greatest things now, as we go into the Emergence.

But the fact is that you went through a lot of lonely days, very, very lonely days. Even if you had a family and a mate and all the rest of that, lonely, thinking that you were the only one out there like that, and now look at what we have here, here in Colorado, here with all of you tuning in. You're all sovereign. You're all independent. There's no oneness here other than you are your own one. We don't go into that whole oneness. That would be the worst thing in the world, to go back into a oneness, where you've come so far with your sovereignty. What we have here is you.

And you find out that all this time you were never alone, and not only do we have this beautiful family called Shaumbra, and I told you way back when it didn't matter to me if there were just five. That was kind of my threshold, just five. Any less than that and I might have moved on, but just five. Well, look at it now. You're not alone, and what's really meant by that is there's so much within you. You're not just the lonely human now. It's the Master; it's the I Am, it's the human. It's all the facets that you've brought from aspects into facets. It's all the experiences. But it all culminates in the human, Master and the I Am.

I won't be able to call you humans anymore. Just a human. I won't be able to address you as such anymore. I'll be addressing you as human Masters, because from here on there's no more just being a lonely human. Now it's everything together.

Let's take a good deep breath with that.

And as much as I love the cake, I'm going to want to be – and you're going to be wanting to – walk up and down the aisles (Linda wheels it away). So, and do indulge in that cake. I will – when you take that bite into the cake – I'm going to be right with you tasting it, so do indulge. Oh, get that sugar in you (some chuckles).

SART: Yeah!

ADAMUS: So, we come to this interesting point and I said to the Ascended Masters, "Absolutely, we're ready for it." What more could we learn? What more could we release? What more could we talk about? Because it's all iterations of the same thing. It's actually, you look at it, it's all interactions of what Tobias said, and particularly in his first two or three Series. We've gone deeper. We've gone into the experience, rather than just having it as an intellectual concept. What more could we talk about? Why wait? Why wait?

I think there's almost a nervousness, a tension in this whole thing, a feeling that, "Well, no, there's something that we haven't gotten right. There's something that we need to keep discussing. There's a reason to come back next month and to keep talking about wings and all the rest of that." No. this is it, Emergence.

The Human's Last Hurrah

It's interesting what's happened, particularly in the last, I'm going to say, in the last month. You may have felt the intensity in the last week, in particular. It's the time of the last hurrah of the human. I talked about this the other day at the Angel webcast, the last hurrah of the human.

You know, let it do its hurrah. Let it do its final acting out. It deserves it. It's earned it, in a way. Last hurrah of the human, meaning that you feel crazier than bird crap (some chuckles). You feel everything chaotic inside. But the fun part about it, as much chaos as there is going on in there, there's a part of you, in all that chaos, there's still that part that's just sitting with a big smile going, "Okay, act out, human. Act out. Go for it. Do your crazy. Do your last dance." Yeah, go out and get rip-roaring drunk, if you want to. Be a total despicable human. You know how to do that pretty well (a few chuckles). The last hurrah.

The last hurrah is have a good fight with your mate, you know, with somebody. Cuss and swear. Last hurrah. That body gets sick and tired. That last hurrah, it's like, "What am I doing on this planet? What am I supposed to be ..." (laughter, as Adamus uses a whiny voice) Just let it go through its last hurrah. And the human also becoming aware of the presence of the Master now. The human crying out to the Master (in a whiny voice again), "Well, fix this" and "Fix that" and "Get me money" and "Get me a partner." It's like, ohh! (more chuckles) No, I've been listening.

But the thing that's different than before is – I've listened to that for a long, long time now – but now I'm sitting beside you, and you and I, the Master and I, are sitting there kind of watching the movie – "The Last Hurrah of the Human." Get it over with. Get it out. Do your last whining. Do your last being a victim. Do your last, "Gotta go out and feel sorry for myself, drink too much, get high," whatever it is. "Just feel like I'm just going crazy" and "Oh! I have no passion and I'm tired all the time." (more laughter) "Aghhh! Nobody loves me, and they don't respect me, and there are so many things I wanted to do, but ..." Let it happen right now. Does anybody relate to that, or is that only a couple of you from last week? (laughter)

And, you know, the funny thing is now that we – you, the Master and I – can sit there and watch this in amazement, and there's part of you that's going, "Oh my god, that was me!" (laughter) Yeah, it was! Part of you that is like, "Oh, I can't believe that I acted like that. I can't believe I was like that." And I'm like, "Yeah, you were." (more chuckles) And then all of a sudden, you get it. You realize and it's like, "But I'm not that anymore. That part is going away. It'll always be in memory. It'll always be a beautiful experience, but I'm no longer going to be that human fighting for just a little air, a little bread, a little circus. I'm no longer going to be that human that's crying out and 'Why this and why that?' I Am that I Am."

And then I'm seeing how all that is turning from aspects into facets, beautiful facets, no longer acting out. No longer doing the "poor me." No longer even doing the spiritual path thing, like "Where am I on my path? How come I'm not further?" and all the rest of that. You're watching all that change into facets, into beautiful expressions. No longer battling within yourself. There is no battle within you anymore. There's no battle. That's done with. Now it's bringing it to wisdom.

So, have fun with it. The last hurrah, how long is it going to last? I don't know. "I don't want to be here anymore. I don't know ..." But sit back and watch it now in all of its beauty, in all of its acting out as it's leaving, it's going, on its way out. What comes in right now is a very wise Master. A very wise Master.

And, you know, it's not like all the problems fade away, but you have a whole different way of looking at them. As long as you stay in this physical body, there'll be some challenges. As long as there are people, other people on the planet and you stay in the physical body, there's challenges. There's even challenges of the body itself, pain or sickness or anything like that, but you have a whole different way of looking at it. It's no longer, "Why me?" It's no longer, "What's going to happen tomorrow? Am I going to die? Is my house going to burn down?" It's a whole different way of looking at it. And suddenly the solutions are there right away. You don't have to spend months or years working through things. Suddenly – (snap!) – it's like that. You just know what to do and you know how to bring whatever that is to wisdom. It happens instantly, in the moment.

Used to be that wisdom came oftentimes at the end of a lifetime. You went to the other realms and we sat with you after you just completed a tough lifetime and you were crying and feeling terrible and not even really realizing you were dead and we had to slap the shit out of you (laughter). Oh, we did (Adamus chuckles). I told Cauldre I wasn't going to cuss today, but I can't help it. No, we had to slap you. You know how sometimes you just – bam! – you know, a spiritual slap. But, no, we had to say, "Whoa! Take a deep breath. Get over it! Just let it go."

And then the wisdom would start coming in. We'd start taking you through and saying, "Okay, hey, remember when this thing happened in your life and remember" – kind of like playing holograms or videos for you – "remember when this happened? Remember how terrible you felt? Remember how you didn't even remember it until we brought it up?" And then we would ask you to bring it to wisdom. A little easier to do, actually, in the other realms, and that's when you did it. But now, instead of waiting for the end of your lifetime, now it happens right away. The moment you just stop for a moment, take a deep breath, "Whoa! I am the Master" and then it brings it to wisdom. That's it.

Anyway, do allow yourself both the wisdom and the entertainment of the last hurrah of the human. Let yourself have that. Some of you have been trying to suppress it, and especially right now as we hit this point of Emergence, you say, “Oh, I got to, I got to – I can’t be like that anymore.” Eh! That’s part of you. It’s just doing its last act and its last play, and then it’s the end. No more just being a human. We move on.

Let’s take a good deep breath with that.

Moving Through

So, yes, indeed, we are ready for the Emergence, and you know, the question has come up from Cauldre about 8,000 times this week (a few snickers), “Is everybody going through? Are we all going through?” Sooner or later, yes, everybody. And you’re all going to do it different. You’re all going to do it at your own pace, your own comfort level. But, yes, it does happen to each and every one who is connected with this, who is ready to go. We have gotten rid of most of those who aren’t, most of those who were still playing spiritual hobby, most of those who were energy feeders. And we had to move them aside, so we could together go through what we’re doing now.

Some of you will go through, you could say, faster. It’s not a race at all, but some of you are so damn ready for it that you’re just going to go through fast. Some of you are going to take your time. Some of you are going to – what do they call that, Cauldre? It’s the slipstream – you’re going to be in the slipstream, the air stream of the ones going through first. You’re going to let them clear the bumps out of the way (Adamus chuckles). You know, the slipstream, when you’re behind a truck going down the highway and you get right behind it and it’s kind of creating an effect that pulls you through. And that’s fine. It’s not a race, and there actually is no award for who gets there first.

Some of you are going to kind of tiptoe into it real cautiously, like one foot at a time, kind of like you’d get into a very cold pool of water and then all of a sudden – boom! – we’re going to push you in. But yes, you’ll all go through. You’ll all go through.

And a few points, for those of you who go through, you already know, you’re not going to be beating your chest about it. You’re not going to be putting on, embroidering on your shirt, you know, “Ha! Ha! I went through first.” You know, it’s such a personal beautiful, quiet thing.

It’s so personal, so you know you’re not going to be bragging. YOU’RE NOT GOING TO NEED ACKNOWLEDGEMENT. That’s it. I have to underline that three times. Gail, if you can do that for me, or bold face, all caps, one underline.

You’re not going to get acknowledgement for it from me or from others. In other words, your name is not going to be posted on the website or anything like that, nor do you want it. So there’s no acknowledgement, and that’s just the way it is. You know and that’s all. That’s all.

For those of you who come along through this early, and you already know this, but there's no preaching at the others. There's no preaching and not saying, "Here's how you have to do it." And you'll realize that, but I'm just pointing it out. There's no preaching and no saying, "Here's how you have to do it."

You know, through Cauldre and once in a while Linda, I check into your social media and there's a lot of preaching on there, and there's a lot of people saying, "Well, this is how I did it. You have to do it that way." It's not about that. There's no rushing anybody and there's no pandering to them either. You know, "Poor dear." You just allow them. They'll come through and maybe in your slipstream.

And for those who are taking their time, and there's something to be said about that – let the others go through and have the little bit of the rockier path. But for those of you who are taking your time, don't throw rocks at the ones you think might have made it. And why would you throw rocks? To test them. But you know, rocks hurt, even to a Master, because they're still in a human body. Don't throw rocks. Don't assault them. Don't criticize them. What you're really doing is just testing to say have they really made it or are they just making it up? Don't do that, because when you first come through in the Emergence, there's an incredible sensitivity and sensuality.

So, for those of you who are holding back a little bit and waiting, don't throw rocks. And to the point that I would ask that if any of this occurs on social media, delete it right away. Delete those stones. I know sometimes the Crimson Circle staff tries to stay open and not censor, but this is too sensitive. Get rid of it. It hurts too much. It goes too deep, even for a human Master.

A Question

So, we're here. This is it. I have to ask the question, where have you been feeling it in your body in the last week or so? A lot of stuff has been coming up, where have you been feeling it? Linda, would you mind? And quick simple answers. I don't need a lot of stories, but where do you feel it in your body this last week? Or your mind. I have to include that. Your mind is now part of your body, it's no longer separate. Yes, dear, where have you been feeling it? 3602

ELIZABETH: Do you want me stand up?

ADAMUS: Sure! I will also, yeah.

ELIZABETH: Okay.

ADAMUS: Yeah.

ELIZABETH: So funny you should ask.

ADAMUS: Heh, kinda (they chuckle).

ELIZABETH: Well, I would say here.

ADAMUS: Where's here?

ELIZABETH: Here in my, well, this is why it's funny. I have in my lifetime felt that wonderful feeling in my heart of, like you say, an orgasm in your heart. I mean, rushes of – I've felt that, so I've had the hint that there's something more. Now here's why it's not funny. Last week (she chuckles), I don't know if it was because of the smoke or just my anxiety, my chest has been hurting me. As a child I had issues in that regard. So, so many things have come up recently that I thought were done. So many memories, just thoughts, that I thought, "I'm through with that. What is that doing here?"

ADAMUS: What is it doing there?

ELIZABETH: Well, I then listened to your wonderful Angel channel and said, "Aha!"

ADAMUS: Aha.

ELIZABETH: Aha! That, I mean, thank you. That was so beautiful and – I'm going to cry – because it just cleared so much up for me (voice cracking).

ADAMUS: Yeah.

ELIZABETH: And I get it. It makes sense, because when you are moving through to another awareness of being, there are going to be stones in the road and thank God I have the memories of having those rushes of love in my heart. So, it's all here, just in different shades.

ADAMUS: So, the heart. The heart.

ELIZABETH: Yes, sir.

ADAMUS: Yeah. And it is, as we talked about in the Angel webcast in depth, it's the last hurrah.

ELIZABETH: Yeah.

ADAMUS: But instead of getting too connected or emotionally involved in it, sit back and watch it like you'd watch a movie. It's very interesting. It's the last hurrah, and it's also everything being brought up right now for wisdom. That's why we talked in our last Shoud about guilt and shame. It's all being brought up. And it would almost go contrary to what you would think. You'd think that, oh, right now everything would get light and fluffy.

ELIZABETH: Right.

ADAMUS: No, but this is the stuff that real angels are made out of.

ELIZABETH: Okay.

ADAMUS: This is what Ascended Masters are made out of – the grit, the grimy, the dirt all coming up to be cleansed, transformed.

ELIZABETH: Right. Wonderful.

ADAMUS: Yeah. It's a phenomenal process and it goes contrary to so many of the teachings – religious and spiritual teachings – but this is real. This is real, and you're going through it and we're recording it, you're recording it, they're recording it back there. This is real life Realization. Good.

ELIZABETH: Yes.

ADAMUS: Thank you.

ELIZABETH: Thank you.

ADAMUS: And could you imagine what a help this will be years from now somebody reading your book or reading, going through Master's Life, watching the Shouds, whatever and getting those huge "aha's." And not just rhetorical or philosophical, but coming from real people who really became realized Masters. It's greater than all the channelers on the world and spiritual gurus on the world put together, what you're doing. The real stories of mastery are so much more dynamic and meaningful. Good. Where else are you feeling it? Yes.

JORGE: Hey, brother.

ADAMUS: Hey.

JORGE: How are you?

ADAMUS: Good. Holy brother. Holy brother.

JORGE: You or me?

ADAMUS: No, me (they laugh). No, that's my name.

JORGE: Holy brother.

ADAMUS: Yeah, yeah. Saint-Germain means Holy Brother.

JORGE: Oh!

ADAMUS: So when you call me brother, I'm like, "Yeah!"

JORGE: Holy Brother.

ADAMUS: It's me, Holy Brother.

JORGE: Wow. Hey, Holy Brother.!

ADAMUS: You can drop the word "holy," but that's fine (Jorge chuckles). Yeah. No, I chose that name on purpose. Holy Brother. Yeah.

JORGE: Good.

ADAMUS: Good. What's your name?

JORGE: Jorge.

ADAMUS: Jorge.

JORGE: Jorge.

ADAMUS: Good. What does that mean?

JORGE: Um ... (he pauses, then chuckles) I have not yet realized the real meaning.

ADAMUS: Ahh! This is ... (Jorge continues chuckling) It means wise man. Yeah. No, it actually does.

JORGE: I listen to you (they chuckle).

ADAMUS: No, and actually look up the meaning. It means wise man or... not smart, but yeah, wise man. Wise brother, that's what I'm going to call you.

JORGE: Well, as I said ...

ADAMUS: Saint-Jorge.

JORGE: Jorge.

ADAMUS: Yeah.

JORGE: Well, let me tell you a little story. I did past life regressions ...

ADAMUS: What?!

JORGE: ... perhaps on your advice (they chuckle). And that's how I discovered you and discovered many other ...

ADAMUS: Hold it. I've got to ask you a question. So, you had somebody facilitate a past life regression?

JORGE: No, I've been doing it.

ADAMUS: You've been – that's the answer I wanted ...

JORGE: Yeah, we did.

ADAMUS: ... you wise brother, you.

JORGE: With the awakening process and how I got into it.

ADAMUS: Yeah, yeah.

JORGE: I wasn't spiritual or religious or anything like that. Smart thing, I would say.

ADAMUS: Yeah, yeah. Wise brother.

JORGE: And somehow I got into – there is a whole story on that, but I got into past life regressions and I got a lot of people from around the world ...

ADAMUS: Did you know me? Mystery Schools?

JORGE: I did in another time.

ADAMUS: Yeah, yeah.

JORGE: And I'm pretty sure that you manifested in one of those sessions.

ADAMUS: Probably. Yeah.

JORGE: A few times.

ADAMUS: Yeah.

JORGE: And somebody told me, "Well, there is a reason why your name is Jorge." Just recall about the story about Saint George and that's your answer.

ADAMUS: Scwifffft! (Adamus gestures like he's pulling out a sword) Yep. Yep.

JORGE: And – swich-ch! – too ... you know.

ADAMUS: Good. So where does it hurt, Holy Brother?

JORGE: Does it hurt? Me?

ADAMUS: Yeah, your body. What have you been feeling in the last week or so? Where is there something notable, your body or your mind?

JORGE: I don't pay attention much of what happens ...

ADAMUS: Did you have flatulence or anything last week? (some chuckles)

JORGE: No.

ADAMUS: No, no.

JORGE: No, sometimes I had some ...

ADAMUS: I don't know if we want to hear ... oh, go ahead (more chuckles).

JORGE: Burning on my heart.

ADAMUS: Burning in your heart.

JORGE: Yes.

ADAMUS: Surprising. Surprising. Really?

JORGE: This side.

ADAMUS: Yeah, that's where your heart generally is, although I know somebody it's on the other side.

JORGE: Yes, especially ...

ADAMUS: They walk backwards too.

JORGE: ... today and here I've been feeling some pains in my head.

ADAMUS: Yeah, yeah.

JORGE: Like headaches.

ADAMUS: That was me (they laugh). Good. So, your heart.

JORGE: My heart.

ADAMUS: Your heart.

JORGE: And my head.

ADAMUS: Okay. Good.

JORGE: That's pretty much it. Yes.

ADAMUS: Thank you. Appreciate it. And Jorge, wise. Wise.

JORGE: Oh. Thank you.

ADAMUS: Good. A couple more. Where have you been feeling it lately?

ALI: I've been feeling a lot of really weird energies that I don't remember feeling before and a real lack of energy.

ADAMUS: Oh, really?

ALI: Not really wanting to do anything, could care less pretty much about anything.

ADAMUS: Yeah. Kind of what I said before.

ALI: Yeah.

ADAMUS: The human, “I don’t want to do anything and I ...” (whiny voice)

ALI: Yeah. I was really deep into it and listened live for the Angel broadcast and it also really ...

ADAMUS: This is all a very good promotion for the Angel program (some chuckles).

ALI: It is.

ADAMUS: (chuckling) Yes.

ALI: And I talked to quite a few other Angels that day and we all said the same thing. It came at a perfect time.

ADAMUS: Yeah.

ALI: However, my one fear about it was the discussion of three to five years. I thought, “Oh, my god, if I have to do this for another three years, this feeling like I have been today.”

ADAMUS: Why three to five years? Where’d that come from?

ALI: I don’t – well, just that it could last three to five years.

ADAMUS: No, no, no.

ALI: Closer to three.

ADAMUS: Let me clarify. What we’re doing here together, for the next three to five years we’re just not going to attract a lot of people from the outside. It’s a pretty cohesive group worldwide. Not a big group – and I gave the numbers, I think on the February 14th message a few years ago – and that group is going to stay about the same size. A few will come, a few will go, but I also said, “I’m not talking on any new students. Just the ones who I’ve worked with in the Mystery Schools, a few exceptions, but not too many more.” Next three to five years, we’re going to nail this. I mean, it’s not going to be going through the bumpy part that we’ve been.

ALI: Oh, good.

ADAMUS: It’s going to be full integration.

ALI: Yay.

ADAMUS: And the discussions are going to be centered around, “So what are the difficult things about being a human Master?” And we’re – eh, I don’t want to get into it now – but we’re going to be really setting some of the scenery for those who come after you.

What happens three to five years – and I’m starting to get a sense, measuring things, it’s going to happen a little bit before that – it’s going to blow wide open. Word’s going to get out, and it’s not because we’re trying to get it out. But word is going to get out, “There is something going on there,” and there’s going to be a new focus and attention on Shaumbra. And it’s going to come fast, it’s going to come furious, and it’s going to be difficult at a point, because you, Crimson Circle staff, Cauldre and Linda are going to want to stay in this nice comfortable arena that we’re in together. And suddenly everybody’s going to be knocking at the door seeking the magic elixir.

That’s going to be the tricky stage. Suddenly, the word’s going to get out that not just one or two, but thousands and thousands and thousands of humans now are letting energy serve them. They’re not talking about it; it’s happening. And, oh, you’re going to get everything from Hollywood movie offers, literally – no, literally – to ... yeah, could you imagine that? (some chuckles) Hollywood movie offers, and you’re going to get people who are – and this is already happening – you’re going to get people who are going to come in and take your materials – these Shouds, our workshops and gatherings, our courses – and they’re going to bastardize them. They’re going to commercialize them. They’re going to – I’ll say the word; Cauldre doesn’t want me to say it – but they’re going to steal it, and when they do, it’s not going to have the same essence as what we’re doing here together.

All of this has been carefully crafted by all of us in the other realms, in the Crimson Council, by you, to be absolutely appropriate and always, always, always, always serving you. Never taking away, never trying to guru-ize this, never trying to focus on anything but you, the ones who are going through this. And that’s going to be a challenge. It’s going to be a legal challenge. It’s going to be a heart challenge when people are taking this and turning it into what you and I know isn’t right. They’re doing it to a degree right now, but very small compared to what’s going to happen.

So, we’re going to stay cohesive, tight, focused with this group, with all of you these next few years, then – boom! – it blows open. And it’s meant to blow open. It’s not by mistake, it’s meant to blow open. But it will bring many challenges for you, if suddenly a big spotlight is on you, and you just want to live your life in joy. You want to live your life now being a conscious creator, and suddenly they’re knocking at your door, literally, and wanting to know what it is, what you have. They’re wanting you to be a guru. And, while there’s a little temptation in that, ultimately you realize that’s not what you want, not what you’re here for. So that’s what I’m saying, “three to five years.”

What you’ve gone through and all the crap in that – pffi! – we’re done with that. Yes. Good. But that gave me a chance to lecture a bit. One more, where are you feeling it?

LINDA: Okay, master of the obvious.

ADAMUS: And I made a comment before. I don't know if you ... (audience says "Oh" referring to Mary Sue's broken arm) I made a comment; I don't know if it landed. I just said the body and the mind are the same now. They're not separate. You always think of the mind being somewhere else. The mind is taking its rightful position as part of the physical body. I mean, it's attached to the physical, it needs your shoulders and your arms and your legs, but it's now just becoming a physical thing. Not a center of power or intellect or anything else. It's melding with the body. So, yes.

MARY SUE: One more ...

ADAMUS: Would you explain?

MARY SUE: One more series in ...

ADAMUS: Would you explain the ...

MARY SUE: An accident.

ADAMUS: An accident. Was it an accident? What happened?

MARY SUE: I fell off my bicycle.

ADAMUS: Right.

MARY SUE: And I got a concussion and I broke my left arm (Adamus applauds for a moment, audience laughter).

ADAMUS: I'm so embarrassed! (Adamus chuckles)

MARY SUE: You were the only one clapping! (she chuckles)

ADAMUS: When did this happen, dear?

MARY SUE: Tuesday.

ADAMUS: Tuesday. And wasn't I just talking about strange events this week?

MARY SUE: Yes.

ADAMUS: Yeah, yeah. What happened? Really, really what happened?

MARY SUE: 'Bump and fill,' would be my hope.

ADAMUS: Exactly! Exactly (she chuckles). Exactly. You know, you're a little intellectual sometimes.

MARY SUE: Yes. And so, my brain kind of took a hit.

ADAMUS: Yeah, your brain took a hit, but you're smiling.

MARY SUE: Okay.

ADAMUS: So, no, really. Not all of you have to do it like this, but no, it was actually brilliant, in a way. You knew what was coming here today and what we're going to be doing. And you're like, "Oh, geez! But sometimes I get so stuck, and my human is intellectualizing all this." Right?

MARY SUE: Yes.

ADAMUS: And it's like, "I know what I'm going to do. I'm going to be like the kid. I'm going to fall off the bike. I'm going to ..." Did you break your arm or just ...

MARY SUE: No, I broke it.

ADAMUS: Yeah, broke your arm.

MARY SUE: But I didn't dislocate it.

ADAMUS: Okay. And had a concussion. What else?

MARY SUE: I have unbelievable bruises ...

ADAMUS: Oh!

MARY SUE: ... all over my body (she chuckles).

ADAMUS: Yeah, I won't ask for you to show them (she chuckles), but maybe later some people might be interested. Yeah, and it was – I don't recommend bump and fill, but sometimes you just need a good whack.

LINDA: Would you define bump and fill? There's people that don't understand what that means.

ADAMUS: Oh, bump and fill. (Tobias talked about "Bump and fill" in The Beauty of Life.)

KERRI: Show us! (laughter)

ADAMUS: Come here! Dear Kerri is saying, "Yeah, show us," and it's like, okay, you know. So, it's when you trip and fall (he pretends).

KERRI: That's not good enough (a few chuckles). I mean, you got the skills. Let's see ...

ADAMUS: What if, what if Cauldre gets a concussion and he can't finish this thing?

KERRI: Bump and fill!

ADAMUS: Yeah, bump and fill (Mary sue chuckles). Thank you. So compassionate. No, bump and fill is when, suddenly an accident – you fall down the steps, you fall off your bike, you're on a wine tour with a bunch of other Shaumbra and you get in an accident and everybody goes ... You know, it's a sudden jarring occurrence.

Now, it generally happens to every child, because your divinity doesn't all come in, your spirit doesn't all come in right away. A lot of times it doesn't even start coming in until you're about two years old. So, you're kind of a shell in a way. You've got a little personality and you've got a name, but that's about it. And then slowly it starts coming in and it takes about 18 to 21 years to come in.

But, particularly as a child, you'll fall out of a tree. You'll run into a wall for no apparent reason. You'll take a tumble. Somebody else will clunk you real good, on the schoolyard, on the head. Those are bump and fills, and it's that time when you're suddenly – (snap!) – out of your body, out of your logic and – whoosh! – you get a big infusion of your spirit or divinity, whatever you want to call it. You get a lot that comes into the human form.

Now, you're on your bike – it's almost like going back to the child – you know, you fall off the bike. What caused you to fall?

MARY SUE: There was a gap in the pavement about several inches wide and when I tried to go back up it, I lost my balance.

ADAMUS: Ah, yeah.

MARY SUE: Fell in the ditch.

ADAMUS: Yeah.

MARY SUE: With rocks.

ADAMUS: And you were wearing a helmet, of course.

MARY SUE: I was definitely wearing a helmet.

ADAMUS: Good. Good. So, you're fine, for the most part. You'll heal.

MARY SUE: For the most part, yes.

ADAMUS: For the most part.

MARY SUE: I mean, we had – instead of happy hour that night, we had gratitude hour.

ADAMUS: Right! (Adamus chuckles)

MARY SUE: It could have been a lot worse! (she chuckles)

ADAMUS: It could have been a lot worse, but it wasn't going to be. You bumped and filled just the right amount. You got out of your brain. You had a huge infusion that came in and you're fine. You're standing here smiling talking to me about it, and I'm cheering you on.

MARY SUE: Thank you (she giggles).

ADAMUS: No, you had to get out of the mental rut. You had just too, too many years in past lifetimes in your spiritual studies, and while it's fascinating, to turn it into experience you've got to stop studying it and go out and do it. And that's what you did.

So, I say for the most part you're all right; your brain's kind of messed up.

MARY SUE: Okay.

ADAMUS: No, and that's good, because it needed to get realigned. You'll still maintain your level of human intelligence, but your mind is now going to back down, stop being the center of consciousness. It's not anymore. The center of consciousness is, well, You, the I Am. It's no longer the mind, and that was a big step for you.

MARY SUE: Okay.

ADAMUS: Good. Thank you.

MARY SUE: Thank you.

ADAMUS: So, everybody has been feeling something different in the last week or two. Some of you bump and fill, some of you just massive depression. Some of you have been feeling just totally empty. Some of you, very anxious – and I know I'm covering the gamut, so like, everything – but there's different feelings. The biggest thing I noticed in the last week or so, if there was a physical reaction, and not for everybody, but I just noticed a lot of it was the heart, and it was said right away by Elizabeth. The heart – maybe a pressure, maybe feelings of melancholy, maybe the heart skipping a beat or something – and it's absolutely appropriate where we are right now.

The heart, which you can consider the energy center for the physical body and the love center and all the rest of that, but the heart is feeling what you're going into, and there's a longing. A longing to both go forward into your creation, and to go backward back to all the memories of being a human. So, it's all kind of coming together right in the heart area. Some of you in the stomach. You notice the stomach more, it kind of overwhelms the heart, but I'd say the heart was the biggest thing.

You know, and it turns into almost kind of a melancholic appreciation of everything you've been through. Kind of like, "Oh, wow. Now we're leaving. We're leaving all that. We're going someplace new," and there's kind of that tugging at the heart. But at the same time there is that longing to come back, well, to your natural self, to who you really are. That's what we're doing in the Emergence.

So physical reactions, bump and fills. There was quite a few bump and fills this week and if you're listening to this, if you've had that experience, if you'd post it on your – ahem – social media so others can see. You're not alone! We're going through this together.

Emergence – Logo and Intro

So, without further ado, I want to get down to one of the two reasons we came here today.

As we now go into the Emergence, I'm going to do a couple of things first. Would you put that icon up on the screen for the Emergence? If you could hear the story behind what the staff goes through, but there was a lot of different visuals to represent this, and this was my favorite of all of them. I love this one in particular, and I'm speaking as Adamus, but I believe Linda and Cauldre liked this the best. I love this, because Emergence. What's emerging? What's emerging here?

What we have is really the three sectors, the three facets – human, Master, divine. And if you notice this is – what do you call this, Linda?

LINDA: Infinite.

ADAMUS: Infinite what?

LINDA: Trinity.

ADAMUS: The infinite trinity or infinity divinity. They're no longer separate. These parts (one side) were kind of hidden from this part (another side) in the past. Now it's almost like you can see the infinity and it's within. It's not projected out. We talk about Emergence and the instant visuals are breaking through something. Yes, in a way, but the more important thing in that is what we're doing is merging.

Merging is right in the word here. Emergence, merging together, bringing together the conscious awareness of human, Master, I Am, and the rays of the I Am, the experience of the I Am. Every one of these rays represents experience levels. The rays then go to the Master. Heretofore, it was just you had your experience and you analyzed it and judged it like it was. It was either happy or sad. Now it goes to the Master and it distills that into wisdom. And many different layers and levels of wisdom. Wisdom isn't singular. There are so many beautiful parts of wisdom. We're going to be talking about that a lot in Keahak and in the Shouds. There are many degrees. There's a spectrum of wisdom. It's not just one thing, and that's the beauty. As you learn to go into your wisdom, you learn there is wisdom that is so very sensual and there's wisdom that's very simple. There's wisdom that sings. We'll get into it later.

But so here the Master takes everything from the human and brings it to wisdom, and that's the gift to the I Am. Not that the I Am needs gifts, but the I Am just loves its experiences and its wisdom, so there's this flow going back to the I Am.

You can imagine the "I Am, I Exist" just in the joy of being. Doesn't need anything, but it's having this constant orgasm of Self, overfilling and just letting out and then bringing it in again, just for the sake of creation, just for the sake of its existence. Joy only. No regrets, no sadnesses. It's all joy. So this is constantly filling the cup of the I Am, and then the I Am shining back again to the human saying, "Go to experience once again. Go to experience. Don't worry about the past. It's been brought to wisdom. Experience in your life."

I asked the question recently in Keahak, "What do you want to experience?" because you're going to be able to choose. It's not just going to happen to you. It's not just going to be destiny day again with things happening to you and you don't know why. You start to consciously choose your experience. And I pushed the Keahakers very hard and repeated it ad nauseum, "What do you want to experience?" Because the typical things are "Money" and "My kids being nice to me" and "I need some more sleep." Aghh! (some chuckles)

What do you want to experience? Because when you can bring your consciousness to that level – what do you want to experience? – I mean, distill it and not for human needs. What would be your passion to experience, and your joy? When you get to that point, when you can define it, when you can bring it to clarity, you don't have to worry about all the mundane human things anymore. It's taken care of, because, why? Because energy serves you, rather than assaulting you.

When you can define, "Hey, here's what I want to experience in my life," and not "I want to travel to three different countries" or way back when I asked the question, you know, if you had three wishes, what would you do – "Go scuba diving" – it's like, oh, okay, but I think there might be a little higher calling here. Those things just happen. All the human kind of needs are taken care of, but what do you want to experience? Do you want to experience sensuality? Do you want to experience the deep sense of just being? That type of thing. Once you get to that point, which we're at, everything else takes care of itself. Your bills, your car, your desire to go travel or something – it just falls into place.

Anyway, the point of this is I love this particular representation of Emergence, because it's all within. It's all tied together. It all shines on each other. So – and there was some requests before and I would like to do this also – let's replay that intro. And let me point out a few things before we do.

If you really feel into this, it's the consolidation of, it's the essence of everything we've done over these years together, visually – I mean not visually, energetically – within the short, short intro. I mean it's a pleasure to watch, but the staff really struggled with this. I couldn't tell you how much they struggled, but they struggled with it. They were trying to get it right from a creative standpoint. What they didn't realize is that they were trying to get it right energetically, "How do we put it out there?" The contrast, and you'll see it in the words, the contrast between the way things used to be and the way they are now. The energy that's transmitted from here. And – let's play it. I'll make a comment afterwards. Lights down, please.

[Emergence intro plays]

Hm (some applause). It's 19 years. Nineteen years brought together, and I have to laugh. The staff was having such a – going through every little detail – a really tough time. I don't know how many drafts they went through. Perhaps Jean knows.

JEAN: Almost 20.

ADAMUS: Almost 20 drafts, you know, and wondering what was wrong. Well, you're trying to distill everything into this, energetically, to get the energy in there.

Excellence

I want to point out one thing that is very important and I have been adamant with the Crimson Circle, the staff about excellence. If you're going to do something from now on in Emergence, do it well. Don't do it like the old human would have done it – halfway, half ass. If you're going to live, live well. You may call it quality or style or elegance or whatever. But if you're going to stay here in this physical body, do it well. If you're going to make a video, do it well.

Doing it well doesn't mean overthinking it. It means putting your consciousness into it, putting your Self into it. It's the way of the creator. The human would just sometimes slap things together or, worst case, would use it for manipulation. But if you're going to do something, if you're going to build a house, do it well. The old human might have said, "Well, I don't have the money." The Master says, "It will work. Do it well." If you're going to travel, do it well. If you're going to have a party at your house, do it well. That doesn't mean that it's going to take more time or effort. Actually, it will take less. But bring your consciousness to whatever you're going to do.

Let's say you're going to have a dinner party. The human would go through all the details, what you have to prepare and set out and plan and the cleaning and everything else. Doing it well means "I Am Here. I Am Here at this dinner party that I'm going to throw." Bring your consciousness into it. Everything else aligns. Everything else comes to serve you. Energy will always come from behind. It will never come from the front and assault you. It will always support you. Do it well. And again, you don't have to effort. You don't have to overthink it. Bring your "I Am Here" to whatever you're doing. If you're going to start a business, do it well. "I Am Here."

And the natural elegance is going to come out, the natural expression. Then you're going to be so proud when a video plays, when the house is finished, when your business takes off. You're going to look at it and say, "I did it like a Master. Not like a human. I didn't cut corners. I didn't withhold my energy. I did it like a Master."

You're going to look at your creations as works of true art, rather than just getting the job done. I'm going to be really pushing that now, from now on. Do it well. I'm going to be asking you, "Did you do it well? Did you do it as a Master?" And I'm going to make sure that that's where we go forward to. That's going to be one of those little things that, like I say, three to five years down the road; that's going to be one of the things that people notice, the group of you and you individually. "Why is it that they do everything so well and it seems to be so easy?"

So, let's take a deep breath. We're going to take a few minutes here. We have a lot to cover yet. We're going to take a few minutes here. Do it well, okay? (someone says "Okay") Okay. Good. Good. Do it where you feel your own creatorship in it, no matter what it is, no matter if it even involves other people. Bring your Master to work (Adamus chuckles). So, okay.

Distilling it All – Merabh

Here's what we're going to do now. We're going to play a little music. We can start the music up. We're going to do a merabh. We're going to take everything that we've done in the past 19 Series and bring it together in one – yeah, yeah. Eh, why not?

(music begins)

You saw the video was a representation, so now, as the music plays and we go into our merabh mode, let's take everything we've done. Even if you haven't been here the whole 19 years, you have been. I know you knew that, but let's say you came into Crimson Circle a year ago, you've been here. Let's take all of these beautiful teachings of Tobias, our core teachings, your core teachings, actually; let's take a deep breath and distill all that.

(pause)

He told you your origins, where you came from, angelic families.

Yeah, he was the one that said you were the representative of your angelic families. You've probably forgotten that along the way, but, no, you were. You came to this thing called the Order of the Arc, the first gathering of all of the angelic families. That was actually quite an amazing gathering.

At the Order of the Arc it was decided that the way to understand energy was to create this place of Earth. The way to understand what consciousness really was all about was to have this place of Earth. And Tobias tells the story saying there was this huge battle, conflict, kind of Star Wars taking place, that was for resolution. But I choose to say it was not because of the battles, but because of the intense curiosity.

So, this place of Earth, and the physical domains was created, and you came here. First, just as a spirit being and later as an embodied biological being. Let's take all that and bring it together.

All the lifetimes in Lemuria, and on to Atlantis. Oh, Atlantis, such a time of love, but also such a time of destruction and collapse.

Let's take all that ...

All the lifetimes surrounding that lifetime of Yeshua ... times in the Mystery Schools and let's bring together, then coming together again in this lifetime, with such strong commitment for your Realization, off of the typical spiritual religious paths.

All the Shouds, all the tears, all the beautiful gatherings of Shaumbra around the world.

Let's bring that all together now.

The days of being a human.

Ah! All the things human. I don't know whether to laugh or to cry at this point. All the things of being human – limitations, emotions, feeling what it was like to be a slave, literally and figuratively. Having others, well, take your power away.

All the experiences, wow! Having families, lovers. Watching people that you loved die, pass away.

All the wondering and the wandering of being a human, wondering, on your spiritual path, "What comes next?"

Let's take all that and let's be Masters here and distill it, bring it to wisdom, including any remaining guilt or shame.

Think for a moment of this icon, this artwork for our new Series. Infinity divinity. The human with their experience, now the Master just bringing it to wisdom, and the I Am just shining its consciousness, its light upon its creations.

Let's take a deep breath with that.

(pause)

So now comes the time.

It's called Emergence. It's called Realization.

This is it, boom.

Let's take a good deep breath with that and now allow. I mean, allow Allowing. In other words, Quantum Allowing here ...

(pause)

... where the human kind of gets out of the way. Stops worrying and stops efforting. Just gets out of the way and allows. That's it. You don't have to work at Allowing. You just allow.

(pause)

Adamus, Adamus (pronounced “Ah-da-mus”) is not just a little village in Romania. It’s a creation of St. Germain, of me. It’s a way of coming to Shaumbra. It’s our creation, this Adamus.

You notice probably Adamus is a little bit different than St. Germain. Tends to cuss and swear. Tends to provoke, to prod, get you to move your chair, calls you on your makyo. That’s actually my – me, Adamus’ – favorite thing, calling you on your makyo. Getting you to laugh. Getting you to cry. But it’s an absolute beautiful composition of all of us.

But every once in a while, St. Germain has to come in, you know, me, not with the Adamus gig. Once in a while there’s a message that just needs to come through. And, in a funny way, because it was this St. Germain that was with you in the Mystery Schools, there is a very intense energy with it. St. Germain is not, I am not – it’s so confusing, who am I? (Adamus chuckles) St. Germain doesn’t joke around as much, wants to be dressed up all the time, is more reverent.

But once in a while it’s important to have me as St. Germain, who I really am, come to visit you. So, in order to avoid a massive bipolar distortion meltdown with Cauldre, I did this message a few days ago as St. Germain.

So, take a good deep breath, sit back and hear yourself in this message.

Fundamental Realizations of Emergence

ST. GERMAIN: I Am that I Am, the Beloved St. Germain.

Now comes the time of Emergence and I come to you as St. Germain. I love the act of consciousness when I come to you as Adamus. Adamus is Shaumbra in the New Energy, Shaumbra, each and every one of you. But I choose this occasion, as we come into Emergence, to come to you as St. Germain.

I come to you as St. Germain, because it’s an energy that you’re familiar with, going back to the Mystery Schools. It’s an energy that each and every one of you can feel into, going all the way back to our time of mysticism and studies and fun and joy at the Mystery Schools, because now we’re ready for the next big step. We’re ready for the Emergence – here we are now – and as we do, as we’re at this moment, I ask you to take a deep breath into the mystical air.

Take a deep breath into the mystical air, it’s all around you. The mysticism of the Mystery Schools. The mysticism of your journey. The mysticism of the next step, the Emergence.

Take a deep breath into the mystical air.

And take a deep breath into the wisdom. The wisdom, what is also called the Master, the wisdom comes in now. The wisdom that balances all the experiences of the human. The wisdom that tempers, that softens the hard edges, that brings meaning to the experience.

Take a deep breath into the mystical air and into the wisdom.

As we go now into Emergence, there are several fundamental, brilliant realizations, but things to be very aware of as we go into the next steps. These were steppingstones. These are some of the basic foundations of where we go next.

Feel them. Allow them to be part of your realizations. Allow yourself to embrace and to understand them. The basic wisdoms, as we go into Emergence.

~ Allowing

You've heard many of them before, nothing new, but one of the first and perhaps most important is allow. Allow your Self.

None of this comes now through effort or hard work. None of it comes through force and there's no power in it. It comes through Allowing.

Allowing, in itself, is not an effort. It's an openness. Allowing the wisdom, allowing consciousness, allowing them into your body, into your being, into every experience that you have.

Allowing is a very personal thing. It's not about the rest of the world. It's not about any other person, any other being. It's about yourself. Allowing you to be all that you are.

It's so basic. It's so simple. Allowing, opening your heart, opening your mind, allowing the Atlantean Dream, allowing all of you to be here at this moment.

Allowing. Take a deep breath into Allowing.

And as we've talked about so often, this is a natural evolution. It's natural. You don't have to work at it. You don't have to effort it. It's natural. It's something that happens to each and every souled being who comes by way of Earth.

You go through your earthly incarnations and all of the experiences that you behold, and then you come to this point where the Master comes in, naturally. Sometimes with resistance from the human, but the Master comes in. It doesn't need to be coaxed or coerced or forced.

True Realization is a natural process. And then, you could say, allow the human to have this natural process. No fighting, no negotiating, no pushing. Simply allowing the natural process.

~ Energy

Then it's so important, so important for the realization that all energy serves you.

You've had so many lifetimes now where you've been working for energy, a slave to energy. But now that changes and you realize that all energy serves you. It's always meant to. It's always been serving you, but so many are not aware. They're not conscious that energy is here to serve them.

Energy is not an enemy. Energy will never push you back. Energy will never play tricks on you. Energy will never deceive you, never sell you out.

Take a deep breath. Can you realize that energy is here to serve you?

It's yours. It's your divine right, whether it comes in the form of abundance, whether it comes as peace, whether it comes as wisdom, whether it comes as being at the right place at the right time, whether it comes as other people. No matter what it is, energy is here to serve you.

In that, you'll find that certain things just go out of vocabulary. They hold no meaning at all. When energy serves you, there's no need to struggle with abundance. It's just there. When you're allowing energy to serve you, there's no need for healing. It's just there. The balance comes back on its own.

When you realize that energy is there to serve you, there's truly no effort. There's no need for goals. There's no need for purposes.

You're here now, in Emergence, to be in experience – experience of your choosing, experience that's supported by all of the energies that are serving you, experience that will always be balanced and tempered and brought to its beauty by the wisdom of the Master.

Let's take a deep breath with that – all energies serve you – and let that be. Let that be.

~ Sovereignty

You're not bound by anyone or anything. You're not bound by your ancestors. You're not bound by the past, your past lives. You're not bound by any humans or any governments. You are a sovereign being, therefore also responsible for your own experiences, your own joys, your own creations in life.

You're not bound by angelic beings, angelic families or angelic councils. You'll find that so many of these things are here to serve you, but you are no longer bound. You're not bound by any God or any gods. You are truly free.

Take a deep breath with that, with that realization, and let go of anything now that binds you, that holds you back, that governs you, that controls you. You are no longer bound by any of those things, as you come into Emergence.

~ Trinity

In Emergence, you'll also find that the mind is no longer the guiding voice in your life. It has been eons of time that the mind has guided, has talked to you, has made its judgments, has made its choices. But you now go beyond where the mind is the guiding voice.

There's a new voice. There's a new feeling. There's a new consciousness, and it is the trinity, the complete trinity of the I Am, the Master and the human. It's not even the I Am making directives. It's not the Master telling you what to do.

It is the trinity of the Master, the I Am and the human working in unison, for they are the same, but working in unison. The human having its experiences, but now experiences of its choosing and of its joy, the Master always bringing wisdom to everything. And now, instead of wisdom occurring at death or years after an experience, the wisdom occurs simultaneous with the experience. Therefore, no wounds. Therefore, no doubts. It is brought to wisdom in the moment.

And the I Am, in its constant radiance of joy, its constant knowingness of the I Exist, I Am, its constant being in its own creation, for true creation is simply the I Am in joy, the human going in to experience that creation, and the Master always bringing it into wisdom and back into the heart of the I Am.

Let's take a deep breath with that.

~ Beyond the Past

One of the other fundamental realizations is that you realize that, as the human, that guilt and shame are self-indulgent human distortions. There's no room for them in Emergence. There's no room for dwelling in the past, carrying the load of guilt or shame. And to the human sometimes that's troubling, because the human feels it needs to cover itself in guilt as to not repeat mistakes from the past. It's been trained, it's been hypnotized into believing that guilt will keep the human in its place, from abusing power, from harming others, from destroying creations.

But now you cannot possibly do so. You have the wisdom of the Master. You have the joy. You have the consciousness of the I Am. There's no place where you go now into Emergence for any guilt or shame. It's time to let go of all that and move forward into the joy of your experience in your creations.

~ Only Now

Going into Emergence now, there is no going back. There's no going back. It's always been what you felt to be an option up to now, even though, in a way of speaking, it really hasn't been true. But you've always held that as an option, as a potential, that you could go back, you can undo what you have done in this lifetime. But you simply can't.

There's no going back, but yet, in a way of speaking, there's no going forward either. There's nothing to go forward into. There's really no tomorrow. There's no next lesson or learning.

So, if there's no going back and there's no going forward, it's all in the Now. Right here. Not putting something off until tomorrow, not waiting for another day for Realization. No going back and actually no going forward. It's here. It's now. It is the "I Am Here."

~ No More Hiding

In going into Emergence, there's also no hiding. There's no hiding and it's something so many of you have done for so very long, hidden yourself, and in doing so, you've hidden your truth. You've hidden your awarenesses. You've hidden yourself even from You.

Now there's no hiding. There's no hiding from You. There's no holding back. It is all revealed – all of the mysteries, all the mysticism, all the blessings of who you are. No hiding that anymore.

No hiding from others. No hiding from churches. No hiding from families. But more than anything, no hiding from yourself. You cannot in Emergence. Everything comes forward. All of who you are, all of the beauty, all of the consciousness, it comes forward.

And as much as there's no hiding from yourself, I do have to say that in Emergence you can be invisible to others when you choose. When you choose to be in your own realm, your own space; when you simply choose not to interact with mass consciousness or others; when you're in the midst of throngs or crowds of people and simply want to be unto yourself, you can go invisible, meaning that you can be in your own safe and sacred space and others won't interfere.

Yes, at times, your light is going to shine very, very brightly on others, and at times you'll find that they're coming to you, attracted to you, wanting to know what it is about you. But because of the importance of maintaining your own safe space and balance, you'll find that you can be invisible. And it may seem odd, you may say, "How can you not hide, but yet be invisible?" Because, my dear friends, you are mystical, because when you choose not to be with others, when you choose to be only in your sacred space, you can be invisible.

Let's take a deep breath with that.

~ Completion

And one more thing. There's no more working on you. No more working on the 'me.' No more working on that human identity. That's done, gone. There's no need to work on anything. Why would you if you are now a sovereign being, if you are now in conscious understanding and awareness of the I Am, Master and human all together?

No more working on 'me.' That means finally it's time to simply experience the joy of Self. Not trying to make it better, just experiencing. Not trying to perfect, just experiencing. Not seeing yourself as anything less than, but rather in your complete state of divine and human. No more working on you, the 'me.'

Going into Emergence, you are a free being, a sovereign being, dependent on no one else for anything else. Everything that is needed in your life comes to you. Yes, as if by magic. No longer being a slave to anything or anyone else, including your own past.

Let's take a deep breath with that.

These are fundamental realizations, as you go into Emergence. Come back to these, visit them from time to time, because there is a tendency to forget, to forget that energy serves you, to forget that this is a natural process, to forget that it's all about Allowing, to forget that now mind is not the voice. It is actually the voice of the I Am, the Master and the human together.

It's so easy to forget so many things, so come back, visit these fundamental realizations from time to time during our Emergence Series.

I connect with you from the times of our Mystery Schools, from the times where we talked about a time that would come on the planet, a time of Realization, a time of change, a time of embodying and, more than anything else, a time of experiencing in a way that the human by itself could never have imagined before. I come to you with that direct connection from the Mystery Schools.

Let's take a deep breath into the mystical air.

Take a deep breath into the wisdom.

Take a deep breath into the journey that's now led to Emergence.

I Am that I Am, the Beloved St. Germain.

Thank you.

DreamWalk Into Emergence

ADAMUS: Now it's time for a DreamWalk into Emergence.

A DreamWalk because it's been the dream.

A DreamWalk because all of the energies are right, right now. And I ask that this DreamWalk with the music, that it not be isolated by itself and put onto your social media. This is too sacred, too precious. We don't want it out there for the energy feeders and everybody else. This is our sacred time.

Let's take a good deep breath, as the music begins, into the DreamWalk, Shaumbra DreamWalk, into Emergence.

(music begins)

It's more than just our Series that we're in; it's the culmination of lifetimes.

Emerging from just the human into, now, the human, Master and I Am, into the trinity.

Emerging, going beyond limitations of humanness, but always appreciating and understanding why you had that journey.

Let's gather all of us together, getting ready for this DreamWalk. But, you know, this one's a little bit different. You know, in most DreamWalks when we go to the other realms, we kind of come back to where we started. When we do a DreamWalk into the realms of death, we come back to where we started.

In this one, we don't go back. In this one we go into a whole new realm, and we bring everything that we were with us. We bring that limited human, we bring all of the experiences; we bring it with. We bring that human body and the mind; we bring it with.

Let's take a good deep breath and begin a Shaumbra DreamWalk into Emergence.

(pause)

It's interesting here, because are we moving? Or is everything else moving?

In this DreamWalk, do we need to go somewhere or is everything else moving?

Is the old reality base, is it the thing that's moving? It's that age-old question. It's like also asking are you going through time or time going through you?

(pause)

Is everything else shifting and responding to us?

I ask you to feel into that.

(longer pause)

Was it going to shift anyway and we're now just aware of the experience?

Was it going to shift anyway, even if we didn't do a DreamWalk?

(pause)

What's moving and what's shifting? Is it us in this DreamWalk, going through a DreamWalk? Or was everything already shifting?

(pause)

Were we already here before and now we're just experiencing it in a different way?

(pause)

Why does it seem so familiar?

(long pause)

Why does it feel we raced to get here, but yet it took so long?

Raced to get here and it was going to happen anyway.

Such paradoxes.

(pause)

You see, in this DreamWalk of Emergence, well, the best way to describe it is the mirrors change. The mirror that might have had you believing that we were moving and going somewhere, taking this journey DreamWalk, the mirror changes.

The mirror that measures and bases everything else on things outside of yourself, it changes.

(pause)

The mirror that says that it was the human who worked hard to get here, that planned this, that made it happen, that mirror changes, because you realize this was always here.

The mirrors all change.

(pause)

That's perhaps the biggest thing about Emergence.

Are you moving? Are you the one getting there? Are you the one doing the walking in the DreamWalk? Or is everything else just changing in response to you?

True mastery is a house of many, many mirrors, and all of them are genuine and authentic. All of them ways of perceiving reality. All of them appropriate.

The human had a set of mirrors, a specific set of mirrors. As much as the human would shift and change the mirror, its origination, it was still a very limited mirror. Therefore, very limited ways of perceiving reality, energy, truth, more than anything else Self.

Here, in this DreamWalk of Emergence, it's really the time of changing mirrors.

The mirrors that will allow you to perceive reality in any way you choose to experience it.

The mirrors that allow you to be in the past or in the future, all while staying in the Now.

The mirrors that allow you to gaze in and see what compassion of the I Am really is, who you really are.

(pause)

And then, at certain points, no mirrors at all.

When you choose to go invisible, when you choose to go deep within yourself, no mirrors at all.

The human would have thought that to be the loneliest of lonelies – no mirror, no outside response, not even seeing your own image. But the Master understands there are times for no mirrors, to be in its own nothingness.

(pause)

The Master needs no mirrors, but the Master also knows that they can play with reality with any mirror that they choose now, multiple mirrors, mirrors of different colors, mirrors of different shapes, mirrors of different sizes.

This is the way of the Master, the way of Emergence.

The Master knows with one mirror you can see yourself in this DreamWalk into Emergence like it was a long tunnel that we're floating through, going into Emergence. But with the other mirror, simultaneously, there's no tunnel. Nothing's moving. You're not moving. It's just reality, creation responding.

You are simply "I Am Here" and everything else is shifting and moving.

The Master has many, many mirrors. It's afraid to use none, because none hold power. They are simply ways of perceiving reality and creation.

(pause)

These mirrors are the facets of you, of the I Am; the many facets previously known as aspects, but now coming in as facets, like a gem has many facets, many parts of itself. Every one of them shining, every one of them reflecting light.

(pause)

The mirrors of the Master are the facets of the I Am.

Let's take a good deep breath into Emergence.

A simple Allowing here is all that's needed. A simple Allowing.

(longer pause)

The Master needs no mirrors to perceive themselves. But the Master also knows they can choose any mirror, multiple mirrors, to perceive reality in whichever way they choose.

Let's take a deep breath in Emergence.

(music ends)

Another deep breath into that sweet Emergence.

As we finish this day, just a brief reminder: You are not crazy. You are not crazy at all.

It'd be crazy to stay in an unnatural state of being, crazy to stay in unhappiness, crazy to stay in that birdcage or that zoo. And, my dear friends, as Tobias would say, you are never alone. There are many, many who call themselves Shaumbra.

But not only that, you're never alone because now there is the I Am, the Master and the human, and of course, you know that all is well in all of creation.

With that, I Am St. Germain and Adamus, in service to you.

Thank you.
